

A care home can combine freedom from the stresses of keeping up a home, with the security of knowing that your needs will be met. For some people it not only provides better care, but brings a new lease of life – free from the worries of trying to cope alone.

Choosing a care home is like choosing any other place to live, that is why the RMBI believe in treating everyone as an individual to find the right home for you.

We understand that it can be a stressful time for family and relatives when their loved one moves into a care home, a whole new experience for everyone. We hope this leaflet will give you some useful information that will help you along the way.

“My relative always says how happy she is in the Home. My family and I are always pleased to hear her say this.”

Prince Michael of Kent Court

Purpose built in 1994 and recently extended, Prince Michael of Kent Court is situated in its own grounds in a pleasant residential area, just 10 minutes from Watford town centre and within easy reach of London and the M25. The elegant gardens are attractively landscaped and have lots of seating areas to shelter from the sun. Prince Michael of Kent Court also boasts an indoor glazed area which is planted with attractive foliage.

The Home is divided into four 'family style' house group units, each with their own team of care staff. Each house group has its own comfortable dining room and communal lounge.

General facilities and services available

The whole premise of the RMBI is to create a home rather than an 'institutional style' environment, both inside and out. Prince Michael of Kent Court can accommodate up to 47 residents offering residential and dementia care. All rooms are centrally heated, furnished bed-sitting rooms with en suite facilities. Residents may furnish their own rooms if they wish, provided that the furniture meets the required safety standards.

The Dementia Support Unit is set in its own enclosed secure gardens and provides care and support to residents with dementia.

On each corridor there are bath/shower facilities especially adapted for safe usage so that residents maintain their independence in a safe environment. Kitchenettes are available where residents can make drinks and snacks for themselves or their visitors.

Catering

The chefs at Prince Michael of Kent Court create a varied menu, ensuring residents have a choice of meals and maintain a healthy and balanced diet. Meals are served in each of the dining rooms in the four house group units, although residents can have meals in their rooms if they prefer. If residents have special dietary requirements, these can also be met. Residents' family and friends are also encouraged to dine – at a small charge.

Funding arrangements

Residents who choose an RMBI Home have the security of knowing that they have a home for life regardless of any changes to their financial circumstances, as long as we can cater for their particular care needs.

Our services are available to people with both private and public funding. Please read the information pack for further details.
